

Canadian Natural Gas Vehicle Alliance Announces Executive Director

Ottawa – May 11, 2015 – The Board of Directors of the Canadian Natural Gas Vehicle Alliance (CNGVA), is pleased to announce the appointment of Bruce Winchester as Executive Director of CNGVA. Bruce will assume his role at CNGVA effective May 11, 2015.

“I am very pleased to welcome Bruce to the CNGVA,” said Doug Stout, Chair of the CNGVA Board of Directors. “Bruce’s extensive government and public policy experience will be invaluable as we work to expand the use of natural gas in Canada as a clean, affordable, and safe transportation fuel.”

Prior to joining the CNGVA, Mr. Winchester served in a variety of posts in the not for profit and government sectors. With two decades of experience in public-policy, advocacy, and communications he has extensive experience working with stakeholders and industry associations to identify emerging economic opportunities and challenges.

Mr. Winchester has an undergraduate degree in political science and history from the University of Toronto, and a master’s degree in political science and history from the University of Windsor.

Mr. Winchester will assume his role at CNGVA effective May 11, 2015. He will also serve as Canada’s representative to the Natural Gas Vehicle Alliance.

About CNGVA

The CNGVA advocates for greater use of natural gas as a primary transportation fuel for the benefit of Canada's economy and environment. The CNGVA leads the natural gas vehicle industry’s participation in the Go With Natural Gas initiative focused on encouraging greater use of factory-built natural gas fleet vehicles as well as working with a broad range of stakeholders to identify and address barriers to the use of natural gas in the marine sector.
